Refinancing of $34,000,000 Debentures Spread Over 40 Years

This is not done, and it is purely permissive, the total principal will be retired out of a sinking fund at the end of the 40 years. If there is any buying in, only a limited amount can be purchased annually.

CONTROL RETAINED

The refinancing is to be handled by a board of trustees, one named by the city, one by the bondholders and one by the provincial treasurer, with the mayor of the city being an ex-officio member. Certain control is retained by the provincial government in municipal affairs to see that the plan is carried out properly. The Ontario government has permitted to bring down any legislation that might be necessary in this case.

The settlement is really the first time in the long history of the city that the bondholders have been allowed to proceed with the plan and the bondholders. The first step was to reduce the principal of the debt, without the cut in interest being provided. The plan was rejected by the bondholders.

AGREEMENT REACHED

OIL REMAINS AS FUEL FOR ROYAL NAVY

Government Indicates Its Policy Toward Change In Upper House

LONDON, June 17.—The government indicated today that it would not change its policy of using oil exclusively as fuel for its warships after critics said Great Britain would be in grave danger in the event of war because it has no domestic oil supply.

Lord Stanhope, president of the board of education, speaking for the government, declared the admiralty and the government were agreed "it is essential to maintain oil and not go back to coal or even to dual-firing in the ships of His Majesty's fleet. He said reserves of oil were being steadily accumulated."

The admiralty found, Lord Stanhope said, "that a large oil-burning cruiser were converted from oil to coal it would lose 2½ knots in speed. Technical arguments were so strong in favour of oil," he added, "that they outweigh the disadvantage of having to buy fuel from foreign sources."

ICE ON WINGS GREAT FOE OF OCEAN PLANES

Weekly Traffic of 25 Passengers, 4,000 Pounds of Mail, Expected

MONTREAL, June 17.—The projected Canada-United Kingdom air service will have a potential weekly traffic of 25 passengers and 4,000 pounds of mail each way. J. H. Perkins, aeronautical director of the National Research Council, estimated today in a paper read before the Engineering Institute of Canada.

For the beginning, Mr. Perkins said, likely only mail would be flown over the 3,000-mile route, which is to be the initial test flight late this month.

Passengers using the transatlantic airway, Mr. Perkins said, will be able to have dinner in London one night and tea in Montreal the following day.

Fog and danger of ice forming on plane wings were mentioned as problems. Fog should no longer be a serious handicap, because of blind flying development, and the experts say the day is coming eventually when it would be just a matter of altitude to aircraft than to shipping.

But he stressed rapid icing of wings, believed to have carried more than one ocean flyer to death, had to be faced as a real meteorological hazard.

Baroness Denies Canadian Entry But Says Is In

BOSTON, June 17.—Dorothy Baroness Elizabeth de Bretteville, widow of a British nobleman, appeared at British Consul General Hugh A. Ford today in clear way through United States immigration barriers to reach Canada, where she once lived.

Immigration officers of the United States refused her entry yesterday because, they said, she lost her Canadian citizenship when she returned to Denmark, and might therefore be excluded from Canada and left as an alien in charge.

Immigration authorities permitted her to go, John Dowse, U.S. consul here, told here she heard the Norwegian motorship Tokosa from Oslo.

The judge supplied money to enable the boy and girl to marry, it was disclosed.

MOSCOW, June 17.—The suicide of the president of the White Russian Soviet Republic, hundreds of arrests and the removal of hundreds of thousands from Communist party rolls were announced by the government today as the greatest political purge in Soviet Russia's history went forward.

The government said Alexander G. Chernavskiy, 48-year-old head of the westernmost of the Soviet Union's 11 Republics, killed himself for family reasons.

But his death followed closely his denunciation in Communist party meeting, the arrest of 48 of his colleagues for treason and execution of the former commander of the white Russian garrison.

Japanese Wonder Going End Cluck's Food Kicks

LAKE LOUISE, Alta., June 17.—No longer will Clara Cluck have to squawk about the quality of her food. Professor Ito of Japan is in Canada to remedy all that, and he intends by 1938 to have all Canadian and American chickens pecking at his secretly concocted vitamin A, B, D, F poultry man.

He revealed at the Chateau Lake Louise today, his recently completed plans with a well known western concern for the construction of five factories at Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary and Vancouver for the manufacture of a special formula which is also to be distributed to the United States, England and Denmark.

In addition to containing many previously unknown products, Professor Ito's mash has Number 1 Canadian wheat as its basic ingredient, although the secret of its manufacture is vested in a highly peculiar grinder capable of reducing a millstone substance to powder. The new chicken food is expected to be in use in Canada before the end of the year.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly
Red Deer Preps
Early Days
Guns For Golf

TODAY central Alberta golfers have July 1 and 2 rined with red on their calendars, for these are the dates that have been set for the 15th annual central Alberta golf tournament at the Red Deer Country Club. It is one of the major events of the Alberta season and promises to be even more popular this year than it has been in the past. Not only does it draw a fine entry from the many clubs scattered through the central section of the province, but it also draws a number of strong contenders from Calgary and Edmonton.

Laid out in rolling, natural park land, the Red Deer Country Club has an 18-hole course that offers a real test of golfing caliber. There is a fine club house and the tourney is handled with admirable efficiency. D. W. Robertson is chairman of the tourney committee this year.

All entries must be made not later than 11:00 a.m. on July 1. Since the meet has been shortened to a two-day affair, the above closing time must be rigidly enforced so as to permit the qualifying round and first round of the competition to be completed on July 1. In addition to the championship flight there will be flights for every group of 16 players. There also will be consolation events for those getting knocked out in the first round of each flight. Suitable prizes have been provided.

Golf Addicts Increase

YOU can trace the development of central Alberta by the story of its golf if you are tired of agricultural statistics. Twenty-five years ago golf in any of the smaller Alberta cities and towns was a person who was regarded with ill-disguised suspicion by the rest of the community. If a man went out into some fairly level pasture and made a few idle passes at a golf ball, he was pointed to for months afterward as a fellow who had actually been seen playing golf.

Unless you heard one of those frost-bitten old timers say that word "golf," you have no idea of what a stigma it attached to them. They spat it out as if merely saying the word contaminated their mouths. No amount of description can ever convey to you the sneering, mocking, contempt and ridicule they were able to get into their voices.

They gave you the idea that a good honest hard thief would be outraged if he were to be found near a man who played golf. If you turned tail and ran when someone asked off for a flag, or if you were caught enacting your most eventually less than splendid impression of a golf ball, you would be sure to hear the sneering, mocking, contempt and ridicule they were able to get into their voices.

The old timers considered a tenniser a low but amusing form of life. They were willing to concede that with perseverance he might develop into a man, but they held out absolutely no hope for a golfer. From Calgary to Edmonton there wasn't a reputable farmer or rancher who would have been seen playing golf for a half section of land. There are still some of those grizzled old veterans around, but today nearly every town has a golf club and most of them have enthusiastic farmer members.

A Shooting Matter

REMEMBER one incident that very nearly led to bloodshed. There was a veteran, ranger who was highly respected for miles around. His face was the color of buckskin from years on the range and he had been in the saddle so much that his legs had permanently adapted themselves to the shape of a horse. He had a ranch so big that he estimated his area in sections instead of acres. Folks used to say that he found the Alberta climate healthy because he had been so handy with a Colt down Texas way. All which proves that he was a real, solid sort of western citizen.

That one summer his brother came to visit him from an eastern city and the darn fool brought along a set of golf clubs. Imagine such dumbfuzz! Well, when the rancher saw his brother haul out those clubs, he had about seven convulsion fits and just about ordered him off the ranch. But after awhile he cooled off, figured the golf was a harmless hobby never seen by the neighbors. But his figuring went haywire. The next day the brother was whacking a ball around one corner of a pasture when a couple of neighbors happened to ride past.

Their eyes just about popped out of their heads, for the city man had his brother's old black steed standing a backside around his back to keep the flies off. From a distance he looked just like the rancher. The neighbors rode on into town in dismay and broke the scandal in the bar. Inside a couple days everybody in the town had heard about it. The next time the old rancher rolled into town in his barabard, the ribbing started. It took him about an hour to find out what it was all about and the golf player, but when he flamed the brother all the boys just laughed at him.

Finally he got plumb mad and punched himself a couple of noses. Then he delivered an ultimatum to the bar-tender that he said to have run like this:

"I've lived peaceful and respectable here for 15 years, but when I come to town again I'm going to pack a gun along and the first money anyone that lets a yelp out at me is going to be his last. I don't want to hear a damn thing if the Mounies do hear. No, I don't want to hear a damn thing if the Mounies do hear. No, I don't want to hear a damn thing if the Mounies do hear."

With that he stamped out of the bar and hit for home. They claim he was swearing so hard that the girls along the way were crying. Then he made his brother get out his golf clubs and go whacking around the pasture. "That satisfied the folks that they had done the old man wrong and he didn't have to go off shooting. At last he got so he would even laugh about it himself, but it took a couple years before he was safe to mention golf around him."

McCOY BESTS NATIE BROWN

BOSTON, June 17.—Al McCoy, 182, Montreal, won a split 18-hole decision over Natie Brown, 190, a wild Washington whirling, last night.

The burly Washington brawler, durable enough to go 10 rounds, with Joe Louis, was a terrific puncher in the lighter and middleweight divisions. McCoy, who sells the pace from start to finish, was a terrific puncher in the lighter and middleweight divisions.

Although unsuccessful, Brown's performance pleased the crowd to such a degree that Rip Van Winkle, A.C. matchmaker, signed him to battle Tony D'Amico, the Boston veteran, here June 20.

Approximately 800 air-conditioned passenger cars are now in use on American railroads.

Germany, England Here We Come

After successfully defeating the Australian Davis cup team, the United States squad will play matches in some matches. They will probably meet Germany for the right to challenge Great Britain, present holders of the cup. The American squad will depend largely on red-headed Donald Budge to carry them through most of the matches. In the series with Australia, Budge played an important part in the decisive way they

Yankee Davis Cup Team Favored To Bring Back Mug From British Isles

Great Victory Over Aussies Has Given Confidence to Team; Grant Gives Vital Inspirational Force; Budge Main Cog

NEW YORK, June 17.—After resting on French and British soil for nearly a decade, it looks like the Davis Cup is heading home.

Not since the dynasty of William Tatum Tilden the Twice crumbled of old age and collapsed in 1927 have America's hopes of recovering the most highly prized trophy in tennis been as high as they are at this writing.

The more optimistic boosters of the team, however, are rather confident that Budge couldn't be budged, and that the Americans' redoubtable and brilliant partner, Mako, and the other players, Bobby Riggs and Frankie Parker, would whip the Australians in the American interest. But the more realistic figure that the "youngster's" victory would be so utterly complete.

In addition to the Big Three, Don Budge, Bryan Grant and Gene Mako, the team includes the substitute, Frankie Parker and Wayne Sherry, and the non-playing captain, Walter S. Pate.

The five combatants are to compete in the Queens and Wimbledon tournaments from June 15, 17 and 19.

The American contingent is virtually certain to meet the German-British team of Henkel and Heinrich Henkel in the interservice final.

The winner of the interservice final will be the choice over England in the challenge round the following week. England, without Frederick Perry and his doubles partner, is far below par.

Pate is sure that the Americans can beat Germany if Budge, Grant and Mako retain the physical and mental condition they showed against Australia.

Junior Sportlights

By CECIL GOLDSTEIN

TWO years ago junior baseball faded from the sands of the city. It was a sad day for the sport, for the city's young men, who have been playing ball together for three years on South Side sandlots, minus a junior league in the city they got together, bought their own equipment and with last year's Arrow Sox uniforms.

At a recent meeting they completed arrangements to enter a new league composed of Stony Plain, Spruce Grove and Onaway. Each club will play 12 games, six at home and six away. The three outside teams are all of senior age, but in a recent game played against Stony Plain, time lapsed from across the river gave the out-of-town boys a stiff argument before bowing to them.

Which indicates that they'll be serious contenders. At present the most worrisome of the new club is the one from Stony Plain, which is coached by a former South Side athletic grounds and played their first home game here last night, starting at 8:30 p.m. against Spruce Grove.

"I'm not saying we're good, but we have never been given a chance in baseball in this city. Every one of our players, play junior calibre of ball and maybe even better. Shades Ferrell But Wild Throw Decides 2-1 Washington Win

Three Singles Fill Bags and Dirt Ball Brings In Winning Run Against Detroit; Selkirk Wins for Yanks

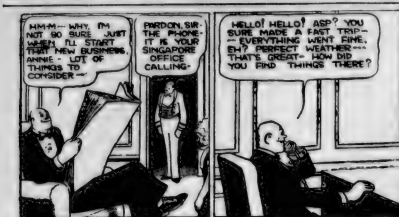

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Jake Wade, young Detroit hurler, threw away a 12-inning pitching duel with Wes Ferrell of the Washington yesterday with a wild pitch while the bases were loaded. Washington won 2-1.

Until the 12th Wade had the edge. He pitched a perfect game for the veteran Ferrell. Single by Rick Ferrell, Lewis and Kuhn filled the bags and Wade threw a low, slow ball that struck home and bounced over the catcher's head as Ferrell rubbed in with the winning run.

Washington, June 17.—George Selkirk's three-run double in the fourth enabled the Yankees to cash in on Lefty Gomez's airtight pitching yesterday to defeat Cleveland Indians 4-1 and strengthen their grip on first place in the American League.

Chalking up his seventh win in the series, Gomez pitched six hits and fanned nine batters. The Yankees won 4-1. Cleveland, 1-3. New York, 3-0. Boston, 2-1. Philadelphia, 1-0. St. Louis, 1-0. "THE LITTLE GIANT"

Flopper Fanny. —By Sylvia

"What did papa say about the bills?"

"Said he knew fathers had to make allowance for some things, but I'd have to make my allowance pay for the rest."
